Subject: Nominations for the 11th edition of the UNESCO-Sharjah Prize for Arab Culture

Sir/Madam,

I am pleased to invite your Government to submit nominations for the 11th edition of the UNESCO-Sharjah Prize for Arab Culture. This Prize, established in 1998 and endowed by the Government of Sharjah (United Arab Emirates), has been awarded since 2001 and enters, thus, into its second decade this year.

As you know, the purpose of the Prize is to reward significant contributions made by two eminent personalities, groups of persons or institutions from the Arab States and from abroad, to the development, knowledge and spread of Arab culture by means of artistic, intellectual or promotional outreach aimed at enhancing intercultural dialogue and understanding. Proposed candidates should have earned an international reputation for meritorious action extending over several years.

The Organization has strongly supported the Prize as a stimulus for promoting a better understanding of Arab culture in its continuous, mutually enriching encounters with other cultures. As you know, one of UNESCO's fundamental missions is the promotion of understanding and a dialogue among cultures.

As indicated above, the Prize is endowed by the Government of Sharjah, with US$60,000 that is divided equally between two laureates selected by the Director-General on the basis of the recommendation of an international jury established for that purpose.

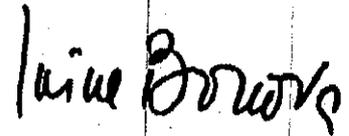

For the 11th edition, UNESCO and the Government of Sharjah would like to enhance further the visibility of the Prize. To achieve this goal, we kindly encourage you to propose qualified candidates from your country, and to ensure that the nomination files are prepared with all the required elements.

To ensure the greatest possible impact of this Prize and promote further intercultural dialogue, especially in view of the changes currently underway in the Arab world, we request all States to encourage talents which, in their view, merit such recognition.

If, as I hope, you are in a position to nominate suitable candidates for the Prize, I should be most grateful if you would complete the enclosed nomination form (Form No. 1) and have the candidate complete the application form (Form No. 2), also in annex. These forms, together with the requested documents, should be submitted for due consideration by the International jury no later than 15 October 2012. The Secretariat for the Prize: (Mr Ali Mousa Iye, Chief of History and Memory for Dialogue Section in the Culture Sector; 1 rue Miollis, 75732 Paris Cedex 15, France, tel: + 33 1 45 68 42 71; fax: + 33 1 45 68 55 96; e-mail: prix.sharjah@unesco.org) stands ready to receive all nomination files and to respond to any queries you might have.

Accept, Sir/Madam, the assurances of my highest consideration.
